

“Teaming is a Verb” – Tools for Building Trust, Flow, and Accountability with Interpreting Partners

Because Great Teams Don't Just Happen—They're Built.

Ever walked into a job unsure of how to navigate team dynamics? Whether you're paired with a familiar colleague or someone brand new, effective teaming isn't just helpful—it's essential.

This interactive workshop focuses on the actionable doing of teaming. You'll learn how to:

- Initiate strong pre-assignment communication
- Create real-time flow and rhythm during the job
- Navigate power dynamics and feedback with confidence
- Foster accountability without creating tension
- Debrief constructively for continuous growth

Walk away with tools, language, and strategies to support collaboration and trust—no matter who's in the chair beside you.

*Ideal for: Working interpreters, advanced students, mentor teams
Format: Interactive, online workshop with scenarios, discussion, and reflection
