

“Who Am I at the Table?” Navigating Interpersonal Dynamics with Consumers and Colleagues

Michael Bothel

Own Your Voice. Share the Space. Strengthen the Team.

What happens when you're facing a challenging consumer dynamic? Knowing your role is one thing. Holding your space with confidence is another.

This workshop explores the interpersonal dynamics interpreters face in real-world settings and offers strategies to:

- Assert your presence without creating friction
- Set boundaries while fostering collaboration
- Navigate power imbalances with professionalism
- Build mutual respect among teams and consumers
- Reflect on your identity, values, and voice in the field

Whether you're learning to advocate for yourself or aiming to support healthier team dynamics, this session helps you step confidently into the seat you've earned at the table.

*Ideal for: Working interpreters, students, mentors, and teams
Format: Scenario-based discussion, guided reflection, and practical team tools
Presented in spoken English, Accommodations upon request*
